❖ "SERVING SUCCESS WITH LOVE: THE INSPIRING JOURNEY OF MS. SINEKA" – PUSH CART PHASE I ❖

Ms. Sineka, a young woman with a psychosocial disability, along with the loving support of her mother and father, has been running a small pushcart business at 112, Kundrathur Road, MS Nagar, Kurinji Nagar, Chennai – 600116 for the past one and a half years. Together, they prepare and serve delicious breakfast and lunch meals, delighting the local community every single day.

Their journey of hard work, dedication, and family unity has become an inspiring example for others, especially for persons with disabilities who aspire to move forward in life with confidence.

With the full support of Tamil Nadu Differently Abled Federation Charitable Trust and generous donation assistance from Ford Company, their efforts are not only sustaining their livelihood but also proving that persons with disabilities too can succeed and lead a dignified life when given the right support and opportunities.

❖ B. BHASKAR – A STORY OF DETERMINATION AND SUCCESS – PUSH CART PHASE II ❖

Mr. B. Bhaskar, a differently-abled person from Periyakupam village near Chengunram, Thiruvallur District, has proven that true determination can overcome any challenge.

Despite facing many difficulties in life, he never gave up on his confidence or his will to work hard. Every day, he runs his small tiffin stall, serving delicious meals to locals and earning their love and respect. Through his dedication, he has become a true inspiration to his community.

He expresses his heartfelt gratitude to the Tamil Nadu Differently Abled Federation Charitable Trust for their valuable guidance and support, and to Ford Company for providing him with this tiffin cart, which has brought a new ray of hope and independence into his life.

Mr. Bhaskar's journey stands as a living example of the saying — "Where there is determination, there is a way."

❖ SUCCESS STORY – N. EASWARAN - BUNK SHOP - PHASE I ❖

Despite his visual impairment, N.Easwaran is making a difference in his life with self-confidence and hard work. He opens his shop from morning to evening without taking a single day off and sells his products.

The fact that he runs the shop with determination every day, regardless of rain or shine, shows his dedication and sense of responsibility.

🌈 A role model

His faith, hard work and patience have made him a role model for the community. N.Easwaran's efforts are an inspiring example for other people with disabilities.

He has proven through his actions that even with visual impairment, one can overcome any obstacle in life with self-confidence, courage, and continuous effort.

❖ Success Line

“Disability is not an obstacle; with effort, determination, and hard work, any disadvantage can be turned into success.”
